It is unlawful to knowingly provide false, incomplete or misleading facts or information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the company. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, denial of insurance and civil damages. Any insurance company or agent of an insurance company who knowingly provides false, incomplete or misleading facts or information to a policy holder or claimant for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the policy holder or claimant with regard to a settlement or award payable from insurance proceeds shall be reported to the Colorado Division of Insurance within the department of regulatory agencies. § 10-1-128(6)(a) C.R.S.

In order to receive a return of your collateral from your producer you must deliver a copy of the court order resulting in a release of the bond by the court to the producer or the surety company.

I certify that the above is true and correct. I further understand that this is an application for a type of credit and authorize a review of my credit history via credit reporting agency checks.
