13 I, _____, do hereby declare:

- 14 1. I am a duly licensed Bail Agent in this state, licensed through the Department of Insurance.
15 2. I have investigated the location of the defendant and, to the best of my ability, have 16 assessed the circumstances of the subject failure to appear.
17 3. The non-appearance in court of defendant herein was without the knowledge, consent,
18 connivance or collusion of moving party or any of its agents or employees.
19 4. I further believe that defendant herein is not able to appear before this court in that 20 he/she is in the custody of the _____, and has been there

22 date therefrom is _____.

23 I declare, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct unless stated on

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Defendant's bail was ordered forfeited by this court on _____, and notice of forfeiture was mailed to moving party on _____. The 180th day from forfeiture mailing herein is therefore _____.

Where it is shown that an errant defendant who has forfeited bail is detained by civil authorities in another jurisdiction (or forum), or that he/she is medically disabled, a moving surety is, at a minimum, entitled to a tolling of time of the 180-day period contained within Section 1305 PC. Los Angeles County v. Surety Ins. Co. of California (1984) 152 Cal. App. 3d 16. If the Court views the defendant's disability as more than a temporary one, exoneration may be appropriate. Penal Code Section 1305.

Moving party respectfully requests a tolling of time herein, or, alternatively, exoneration of bail.

DATED: _____

ORDER OF THE COURT:

Upon good cause shown, the 180-day forfeiture time within Penal Code Section 1305 is tolled this date.
